

I. An object will stay at rest or moving at a constant velocity in a straight line until acted on by an outside, unbalanced force.

III. If two objects exert a force on each other, the magnitude is the same, but the direction is opposite ricochet

